

Lynn Gibson

Lynn has been a Linwood resident since 1967. She has a BS in Education and has been active in volunteering her time to a number of educational groups.

Lynn is immediate Past President of the Linwood Board of Education and is currently serving her 20th year on the Board. She served as a facilitator for various programs throughout the years including Science Goes to School, Art Goes to School, and Green Circle. Lynn was responsible for implementing the Great Books program in Linwood as well as organizing and procuring training for the parent volunteers. She was a founding member of LEF, active in PTO, as well as the Strategic Planning process. She serves as Board representative to the Superintendent Advisory Council and the DEAC committee.

Lynn was the 2009 honoree of the Linwood Education Association.

As an active volunteer at the high school level Lynn served first as Vice-President and then as President of the Mainland Regional High School PTO.

In keeping with her philosophy that all children should receive a strong educational foundation in a safe environment Lynn served for six years as President of the Atlantic City Day Nursery Board, a non-profit day care preschool in Atlantic City and is still active on the Board. She has additionally been on the boards of the South Jersey Peri-Natal Cooperative, Our Lady of Sorrows Parish Council and the Linwood Nursery School Board.

Lynn and her husband, Tony, spend their free time trying to keep up with their six children and 15 grandchildren. Two of their grandchildren are currently attending Seaview School and more will follow in the near future.
