

Judd McLaughlin

After a seven year tour with the large national/international accounting firms, including time in the audit and tax departments of Deloitte (Richmond, VA) as well as the tax departments of KPMG (Philadelphia, PA and Providence, RI) and Grant Thornton (Philadelphia, PA), Judd returned to his South Jersey roots and took a position with Harrah's Entertainment's Atlantic City casino hotel. His experience in the casino industry began with the position of Internal Audit Director of Harrah's Marina and concluded as Controller for the Riverboat Division, which included the nascent Tribal Gaming affiliations and start-ups that Harrah's had begun working on in the early to mid-1990's. In 1996, faced with a move to Memphis, TN or Shreveport, LA, Judd decided to keep his young family in the South Jersey area and return to public accounting. He is a senior principal in the firm of Capaldi Reynolds & Pelosi, PA.

Judd and his wife Kim have lived in Linwood since 1993. Their 3 children, Grace, Abigail, and John, have attended Linwood Schools.
