

Michelle DeMorat

Michelle was born and raised in Millville, NJ, and graduated from Millville Senior High School in 1991. Michele earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting from Rider University in 1995, and after graduation, moved to Chapel Hill, NC with her husband Gene.

Michelle attended the University of North Carolina and earned a teaching certificate. She taught at the New Hope Elementary School in Carboro, NC until 2000, when her first son was born.

Michelle moved back to New Jersey in 2003 to Linwood, after spending a year living in Salt Lake City, Utah. She has lived in Linwood ever since and enjoys raising her four children (Nick, Drew, Kendall & Camryn) in the Linwood School District with her husband.

For the past 4 years, Michelle has been a member of the Linwood Education Foundation where she just resigned as Co-President for the past 2 years. During her reign as Co-President, the LEF raised over $94,000 and awarded close to $115,000 in grants to the teachers and staff of Linwood Schools.

Michelle enjoyed teaching SRE classes at Our Lady of Sorrows Church for the 6th grade, and in her spare time enjoys reading, spending time with her family and friends, and going to the beach.
